THE ANTI-GROUP

1. Nitsun, M. (2000) "The Future of the Group," Intern. Journal of Group Psychoth., 50 (4), p. 455 – 472.

This is the Lecture I gave at the AGPA congress in 1999 under the title of 'Slavson Memorial Lecture'. It may be of particular interest because it attempts to draw together British and North American traditions, while giving a summary of the Anti-group.

2. Nitsun, M. (2005) "Destructive Forces in Group Therapy," in Motherwell, I. and Shay, J.J., (eds.) Complex Dilemmas in Group Therapy, New York: Brunner-Routledge.

This is a chapter in a book and you may need the editors/publishers' permission to extract and post it on a web-site but it is a good summary.

3. Nitsun, M. (1991) "The Anti-group: destructive forces in the group and their therapeutic potential." Group Analysis, 24, 1, p. 7 – 20.

This is my first published article on the Ant-group which is still often quoted.

DESIRE AND SEXUALITY

Nitsun, M (2009) "Sexual Diversity in Group Psychotherapy." Paper presented at the European Federation of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapists' conference in Prague, 2009.

This is not a published paper - may be at a later stage - but I'm happy for you to include it since it is the only short article on the desire/sexuality theme. I am sending it as an attachment. There are three visual images within the text and these usually require a few additional seconds before they appear on the page. (Note: this is available as a download at the PSGPN web site.)
